Arts Advocates at May 2003 rally on State House steps

ArtPRIDE New Jersey members are a dynamic community. Together we helped save New Jersey's cultural agencies and their appropriations when all funding was about to be eliminated from the 2004 state budget. ArtPRIDE provided leadership and coordinated the powerful, united voice of the arts. Success took the form of a dedicated source of state funds that provides a minimum of $22.7 million for arts programs throughout New Jersey.

The ArtPRIDE New Jersey Foundation works to increase public awareness of how important the arts are to New Jersey's economic growth, our children's education and to our overall quality of life. Become part of this dynamic community and as an ArtPRIDE member have immediate access to these programs and services:

Programs & Services

- Timely action alerts on state and federal actions affecting the arts
- Discounted registration for the ArtPRIDE Congress, a forum linking leaders from government, private industry and the arts
- An interactive web site that provides direct communication with legislators, and technical assistance like a Job Bank, Speakers Bureau, and online Resource Rooms
- Connections, an online gallery presenting creative visual and literary expressions
- An introductory membership in Americans for the Arts (beginning in January 2005), reduced membership in the NJ Travel Industry Association, complimentary legislative directory
- Participation in National Arts Advocacy Week activities in Washington, DC
- Research on public arts participation, economic impact and other trends affecting the arts.
